

Jerry D. Reece

CEO
Reece & Nichols Realtors

Where SOLD Means More

Reece quenches his thirst for the real estate business.

After 35 years in the real estate business ... even after ascending to his current position as CEO of Reece & Nichols Realtors ... there's no sign of the well going dry for Jerry Reece.

You see, Jerry and his wife, Patty, decided to move to Kansas City after their water storage tank on their cattle ranch ruptured, eliminating their water supply. It was then that he acquired his thirst for real estate and became a sales agent for Kroh Brothers. His glass would fill quickly from there.

In 1987, he purchased the brokerage's residential real estate division and renamed it J.D. Reece Realtors. Under Jerry's leadership, the company quickly earned a reputation as one of Kansas City's top residential real estate companies.

Reece & Nichols was formed in January 2002 with the merger of J.D. Reece Realtors and J.C. Nichols Residential Real Estate. Today, Reece & Nichols is a regional powerhouse with a stronghold on Kansas City's real estate market.

Jerry graduated from the University of Oregon with a bachelor of science in finance. In 1993, he retired as a Colonel in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve, having served for 30 years. In addition to enjoying their three children and four grandchildren, Patty and Jerry are restoring a historic stone farmhouse in The Flint Hills of Kansas. Jerry also finds time for fishing, hunting, horseback riding and reading.
